

Sutter Regional Medical Foundation

A Sutter Health Affiliate

With You. For Life.

K. Paige Griffin, FNP, MSN

Summary:

Paige Griffin joined Sutter Regional Medical Foundation (SRMF) as a nurse practitioner in 2006. She has worked in the specialty of occupational medicine for 10 years.

Specialty:

Occupational Medicine

Geography of Practice:

Solano County

Professional Education and Background:

After graduating as Valedictorian of her class at Saint John's High School in San Juan, Puerto Rico, Paige went on to receive her BA in Biological Sciences at UC Davis in California. She received her BS Nursing degree cum laude from Samuel Merritt College in Oakland and her MS Nursing degree from the same college in 1998.

Prior to joining Sutter, Paige was a nurse practitioner at Queen of the Valley Hospital in Napa for the WorkHealth Program. She has held positions as both a staff nurse and home health nurse/change nurse at Mercy Healthcare in Sacramento and was a staff nurse at St. Mary's Hospital/CHW in San Francisco and in the Emergency Department at Sutter Davis. She is also bilingual (Spanish-English).

Areas of Interest:

Paige is deeply committed to the field of occupational medicine, not only in helping patients recover, but in helping to educate them about the importance of overall fitness to help protect them from future episodes or injuries.

Services Offered:

- Pre-placement employee assessment
- Injury and illness prevention
- Injury and illness management
- Regulatory compliance
- Employee education programs
- Worker's compensation services

In Her Words:

"It is important for people who have physical jobs to stretch, progress at a reasonable pace and allow themselves recovery time-just like athletes do. Very few people do this at work."
